

Privacy information

EU-People BV

At EU-People BV we respect our temporary employees, clients and colleagues and their privacy. In the context of our commitment to quality and integrity, data protection and security are one of our highest priorities. Our professional organization aims to provide as much transparency as possible about what we do with personal data and why we do this.

If you provide us with personal data, then EU-People BV will be regarded as responsible within the meaning of the AVG regarding personal data. EU-People BV is based at Esp 216, 5633 AC Eindhoven and is registered with the Chamber of Commerce under number 17198890.

Processing of personal data of registrations and employees

If you request information from EU-People BV, we will ask you for information such as your name, telephone number or e-mail address. Privacy information will not be provided to you by telephone.

If you respond to a vacancy, EU-People BV also asks for additional information, such as your date of birth, nationality, gender, details of your driving license, your CV, your work preferences and your functional suitability to perform certain types of work.

To get a completely relevant picture of candidates we can consult other sources such as the internet. We will share the results with you to prevent us from getting a wrong or irrelevant impression of you.

We also check references of candidates, but not before they have been informed (verbal) about this in advance. We can also ask for additional information, requested or required by hirer, such as certificates or a VOG.

At the moment you start working for EU-People BV, or already work, or have worked, we will also process personal data required in the context of the personnel and salary administration, such as BSN, data about your identity document, bank details, any work permit, hours worked and other required data.

This data can be passed on to our sister companies EU-FleXXforce BV and EU-People Polska Sp. z o.o., our business partners and subcontractors (for example data processors), who provide services on its behalf, and in all other cases where EU-People BV may be obliged to do so. We can also place your name on planning lists, among other things to enable you to make agreements about (sustainable) traveling together to and from your workplace.

Our systems do not use fully automated profiling / decision-making.

Processing of personal data of business relations

Personal data of business relations contains contact details of suppliers, vendors, employees of clients, referees and any other agency with which we maintain a business relationship.

EU-People BV processes this personal information for making offers or providing information about the services and other activities and to maintain a business relationship or to conclude and maintain an agreement.

We provide, among other things, the following personal details of business relations: names, contact details and functions of contact persons. EU-People BV can pass on the personal data obtained from its business relations if this is necessary to achieve the objectives of the business relationship or for the benefit of mediation. This data can be passed on to our sister companies EU-FleXXforce BV and EU-People Polska Sp. z o.o., to applicants or candidates, business partners and subcontractors (for example data processors), who provide services on its behalf, and in all other cases where EU-People BV may be obliged to do so.

Purposes

EU-People BV may process personal data in order to:

- to comply with legal obligations, including tax obligations, social security obligations and reintegration obligations;
- respond to questions and comments;
- to be able to approach you for marketing purposes and information about us;
- be able to assess your suitability for mediation into (temporary) work or an assignment;
- to enter into and execute an employee or brokerage relationship and the associated employment conditions;
- manage and maintain the personnel and brokerage administration;
- enter into and execute an agreement with a client;
- promote your personal development and employability through education and training;
- to be able to call upon any claims for benefits;
- be able to arrange company medical care or company social work;
- to provide housing;
- to carry out audits;
- to deal with complaints and disputes;
- to provide the necessary insurance policies.

The processing of your personal data takes place based on legal obligation, in implementation of the agreement that we enter into or have entered into with you, or based on the legitimate interest of EU-People BV to be able to execute its services as efficiently and customer-friendly as possible.

Third parties

For the aforementioned purposes we can make use of the services of third parties to whom your personal data can be provided in that context. Consider, for example, our IT suppliers, pension provider or telecom service providers. EU-People BV can also pass on your personal data to its clients or to our sister companies EU-FleXXforce BV and EU-People Polska Sp. z o.o. It goes without saying that your privacy will be treated with the utmost care for these benefits.

If EU-People BV is obliged to do so on the basis of law or regulations, your personal data may be provided to competent authorities and governmental authorities in Holland and abroad. Your personal data will not be sold or rented for commercial purposes.

Storage period

The retention periods we use are in accordance with the legal custody and retention periods, such as the fiscal retention obligation, or longer if necessary for the settlement of disputes.

Security

EU-People BV pays utmost attention to the security of your personal data, in order to prevent unauthorized access to it. We apply a strict security policy that is periodically evaluated and adjusted if necessary. We only provide personal information if we are convinced that the recipient is entitled to do so. By telephone we only provide personal information (for example to the UWV) in very exceptional cases, after a very thorough verification of the recipient. When providing personal data, we take the highest possible security.
